[REDACTED] Comment. Probably two troop trains with components of the 6th Gds AAA Div returning to their home stations after completion of field exercises. On the same day, [REDACTED] also observed the departure of a troop train with a medium AAA unit from Koenigsbrueck toward Dresden. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] RTO of the First Gds Mecz Army. It was previously believed that GOFG troop trains were dispatched by a GOFG RTO [REDACTED] and not by the RTO belonging to the district where the GOFG unit was stationed. [REDACTED] an unidentified AAA unit of the 6th Gds AAA Div (US) until 4 June 1943.

[REDACTED] Comment. On 26 June 1953, a troop train [REDACTED] from Koenigsbrueck to Jueterbog was reported [REDACTED] This train also had 29 cars which probably hauled rocket launchers to the rocket launcher repair shop of the GOFG to Jueterbog. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Comment. The troop trains probably carried units returning to the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds which moved to their home stations during the riots in East Germany. Thus, army troops of the First Gds Mecz Army or contingents of the 11th Gds Tank Div probably returned to Koenigsbrueck from Dresden; and components of the 8th Gds Mecz Div from Rueckmarsdorf, Grimma and Wurzen. Only one loading of troops, however, was observed at Grimma on 13 July 1953. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Comment. Probably shipping back to the USSR of empty crates which had contained MiG-15 assigned to the VPL in April 1953.

25X1

[REDACTED] Comment. The KVP trains from Weisswasser carried KVP units of TV 6000 returning to their home stations.

6. [REDACTED] Comment. Up to early June 1953, Dresden-Klotzsche airfield was occupied by elements of a VPL regiment from Kamenz, which had been withdrawn later. A training of members of this regiment possibly again was started at Klotzsche airfield.
